AND AT HOME.

MRS. BARBARA SERENO

SPIRITED
WELL-LIKED
HUMOROUS

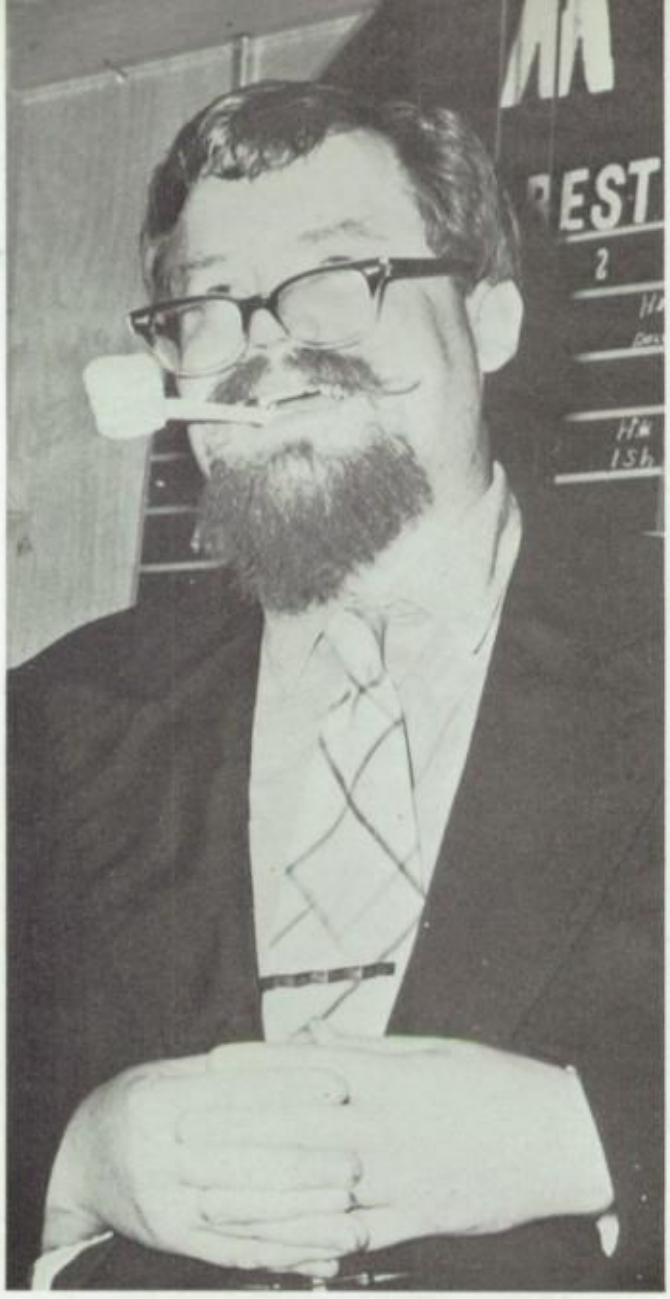
Mrs. Sereno's place in the hearts of Hill students can best be expressed in her nickname, "Ma". She is the willing shoulder for someone to cry on. She is the ready joker when the occasion demands. She is the spirited Falcon bravely cheering "her" boys on.

While at Hill, Mrs. Sereno has taught music, English, and reading. This is her last year—at Hill; next year she will be teaching at Oak Grove High School. Although she will no longer be here, her memory will stay, and faculty members and students alike will miss her. Those who attend Oak Grove next year will continue to enjoy her warmth and friendliness.

Even at an early age Mrs. Sereno displayed her own distinct personality. As a Campfire girl, she sold Brownie cookies in Lodi, California. It was here that she was born on April 4, 1935, and lived until she graduated from Lodi High School. She then majored in English and music at San Jose State College, graduating in 1957 with an A.B. in music. It was in 1960 that she began teaching at Hill.

FOCUS ON ACTION

WHEREVER IT IS!



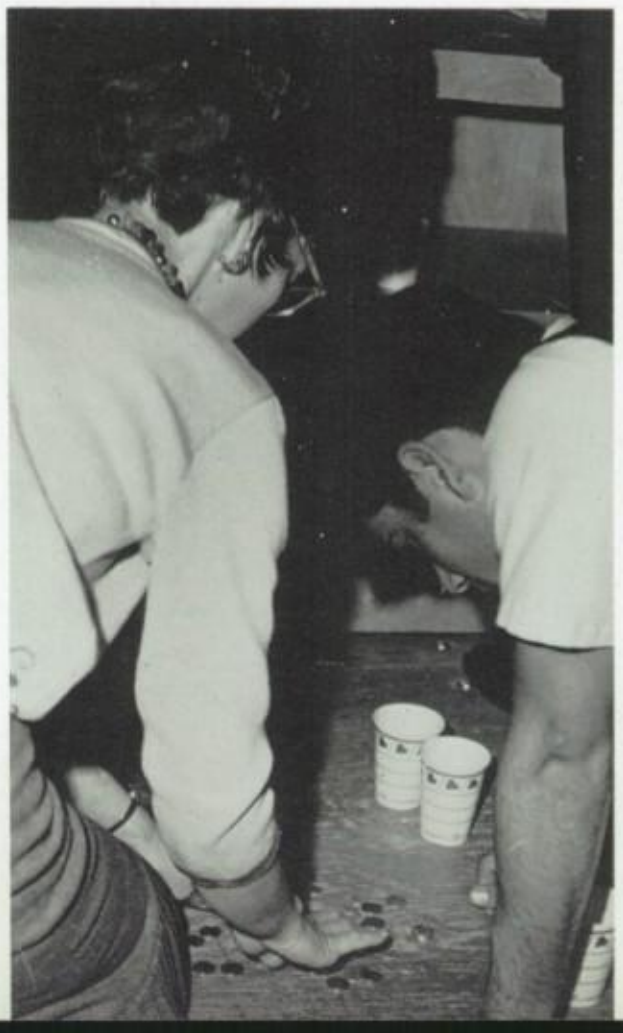
This year the action at Hill not only took place on campus with the Harlem Clowns Basketball game, the Sadie Hawkins Dance and the football game at noon on the Senior Lawn, but was also found at Foothill College with the annual Hill Invitational Track Meet and at Berkeley with a model UN.

GIRLS EMERGE VICTORIOUS

FIRST TIME IN SEVEN YEARS!

A snail race sponsored by the boys was great fun, but did not lead to their victory.

Relaxing at Shakey's after the car rally.



Mrs. Sereno and Dennis Moore in a last minute rush to be sure that all change was counted correctly.

Gloria Harris, Commissioner of Girls, is shown counting her money frantically in an effort to have a higher bid than the boys.

Mr. Jolley, acting as auctioneer, was kept busy throughout the auction by the bids from both sides.

Guess who Won!

"The People" are shown here as they play for our Slave Day Dance.

CHOIR

This year the orchestra and Choir, under the direction of Mr. Mike Kambeitz, were very active. The orchestra contributed a great deal of time, effort, and talent to Hill's musicals and concerts.

The Choir sang at various functions including the Christmas assembly, the District Choir Festival, the PTA Bazaar and the Art Music Fair.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Starting and ending with a tie game, this year's varsity football team gave us a very exciting and successful season, winding up in third place in the league, the best Hill has ever done. Until the encounter with Willow Glen, Hill was undefeated; the second loss came with James Lick. But the team rallied and ended the season with a 0-0 tie with Samuel Ayer. Although Ayer did not beat us, they kept the much coveted Victory Bell since they had won it the year before.

Season Scoring:
